"Dollar General, The Best Tenant In America!"

Tenant Info: Dollar General is listed as "DG" on the NASDAQ. Their solid credit rating qualifies them as "Investment Grade" allowing even the most conservative REITS and Trusts to purchase real estate leased to this tenant. DG is considered to be one of the best tenants in America by many landlords.

The Company: Dollar General is considered by financial analysts to be a very profitable, growing, customer-driven distributor of consumables, home products, apparel and seasonal products.

Sales: DG had sales for 2018 of over $25.6 billion, up from $23.4 billion in 2017. They eamed an impressive pre-tax net income of over $2 billion. DG has steadily increased sales each year since 1955.

Growth: Dollar General opened 900 new stores in 2018 and remodeled

1,050 stores. They plan to continue this growth in 2019 and open approx 975 new stores and remodel approx 1,000 existing stores. DG reported that they had 15,472 stores in 44 states as of 3-1-19.

Real Estate: Dollar General prefers to lease their standard 9,100 SF buildings, built for them in very visible and accessible locations in smaller towns. DG is willing to sign 15 year, absolute triple net leases on these new buildings. This allows the landlords to have a very desirable, maintenance free investment, the easiest type to finance.

My Opinion: I consider Dollar General to be the most landlord-friendly retailer in America. They treat their landlords like partners, instead of "the enemy". They are very fair to work with and respond quickly to requests for estoppel letters, SND&A's and insurance transfers. I like Dollar General's Literacy Foundation that provides substantial grants to non-profits that support literacy, helping over 50,000 at-risk children learn to read.
