Buyer and Buyer's tax, financial, legal, and construction advisors should conduct a careful, independent investigation of any net leased property to determine to your satisfaction with the suitability of the property for your needs.

Like all real estate investments, this investment carries significant risks. While the tenant's past performance at this or other locations is an important consideration, it is not a guarantee of future success. Similarly, the lease rate for some properties, including newly-constructed facilities or newly-acquired locations, may be set based on a tenant's projected sales with little or no record of actual performance, or comparable rents for the area. Regardless of tenant history and lease guarantees, Buyer is responsible for conducting his/her own investigation of all matters affecting the intrinsic value of the property and the value of any long-term lease, including the likelihood of locating a replacement tenant if the current tenant should default or abandon the property, and the lease terms that Buyer may be able to negotiate with a potential replacement tenant considering the location of the property, and Buyer's legal ability to make alternate use of the property.

The Detroit metro is located in the southeastern portion of Michigan along the Detroit River, which connects Lake St. Clair and Lake Erie. Across the Detroit River lies the city of Windsor, Ontario, which provides access to the Canadian market. The metro is a nearly 4,000-square-mile region composed of six counties: Wayne, Macomb, Lapeer, Oakland, St. Clair and Livingston. More than 4.3 million residents reside in the area and after years of declining population, the metro is adding residents again as employers and development expand. Wayne is the most populated county, followed by Oakland County. Detroit is the largest city with more than 700,000 residents.
