The value of a net leased property to you depends on factors that should be evaluated by you and your tax, financial and legal advisors. Buyer and Buyer's tax, financial, legal, and construction advisors should conduct a careful, independent investigation of any net leased property to determine to your satisfaction with the suitability of the property for your needs. Like all real estate investments, this investment carries significant risks. Buyer and Buyer's legal and financial advisors must request and carefully review all legal and financial documents related to the property and tenant. While the tenant's past performance at this or other locations is an important consideration, it is not a guarantee of future success. Similarly, the lease rate for some properties, including newly-constructed facilities or newly-acquired locations, may be set based on a tenant's projected sales with little or no record of actual performance, or comparable rents for the area. Returns are not guaranteed; the tenant and any guarantors may fail to pay the lease rent or property taxes, or may fail to comply with other material terms of the lease; cash flow may be interrupted in part or in whole due to market, economic, environmental or other conditions. Regardless of tenant history and lease guarantees, Buyer is responsible for conducting his/her own investigation of all matters affecting the intrinsic value of the property and the value of any long-term lease, including the likelihood of locating a replacement tenant if the current tenant should default or abandon the property, and the lease terms that Buyer may be able to negotiate with a potential replacement tenant considering the location of the property, and Buyer's legal ability to make alternate use of the property.

CHILI'S GRILL & BAR⁽¹⁾

Founded by Larry Lavine in Texas over 40 years ago and currently owned and operated by Dallas-based Brinker International, Inc., Chili's Grill & Bar is Brinker's flagship brand and a recognized leader in casual dining offering fresh, bold and unexpected flavors. With 1,632 independently and corporate-owned and operated locations, Chili's enjoys a global presence with locations in 32 countries and two U.S. territories, more than 100,000 team members and entree selections ranging in menu price from $6.00 to $18.99. The Chili's brand has remained competitive by offering consistent, quality products at a compelling every day value, leveraging technology initiatives to create a digital guest experience believed to engage guests more effectively, and loyalty programs and incentives to further enhance sales and drive incremental traffic. In September 2017, the casual dining chain decided to streamline their menu to focus on food quality and customer experience, and reinvested in its best sellers and signature items of burgers, baby back ribs, fajitas and famous margaritas. In the second half of 2018, Chili's will focus on bolstering its to-go and delivery businesses, which account for more than ten percent of its sales. Named as one of "America's Best Employers" on the 2015 Forbes List and Fortune's "100 Best Workplaces for Millennials", Chili's continues to revolutionize the casual dining industry as a technology pioneer and is well known for fostering an energetic culture for team members.

CHILI'S GRILL & BAR AT A GLANCE

- ▶ “Brinker continued to gain momentum during the third quarter, especially related to our foundational strategy to drive positive traffic at Chili's. Our investments into our food, our value equation and our curbside To Go offering are working and creating a more compelling guest experience. Chili's has the opportunity to become the largest American casual dining brand globally. We opened 30 restaurants in Fiscal 2017, and we're thrilled by our franchise partners' continued enthusiasm to expand the brand.”

-Wyman Roberts, Brinker International, Inc. Chief Executive Officer and President

- ▶ “Chili's culture is fantastic. Very open, very honest, very collaborative. We have an expectation that we need to deliver upon. Chili's is in a space that is completely open for opportunity. From a technology standpoint, and a digital experience standpoint, it's blue sky. We can really modify and change, progress this industry. The organization is committed to it, the industry needs it, they're begging for it, consumers want it. They're all carrying these devices and they want to have that interactivity. After implementation of the new mobile app, online orders experienced a 25%-55% growth when compared to the previous year, resulting in increased sales and enhanced customer experience.”

- Wade Allen, Brinker International, Inc. Senior Vice President and Chief Digital Officer

- ▶ “Chili's will be remodeling 200 to 250 older restaurants in fiscal 2019. We have expectations for the decent mid-single-digit sales lift from that kind of program. Average costs of the remodeling are between $200,000 and $250,000 per restaurant. Recent remodels including more focus on the bar are more relevant for today's consumers.”

- Joe Taylor, Brinker International, Inc. Chief Financial Officer

- ▶ “Among a growing generation of diners who prefer touch screens over personal interactions, chains such as Chili's are betting big on various digital platforms to boost brand recognition, off-premise sales and foot traffic. We have to be everywhere our guests are. Chains can't survive without reaching Generations Y and Z, who love mechanization. You've got to play their game. Technology is leveling the playing field. It's expensive to do, but you can't afford not to do it because habits are changing. Delivery sales are making up for restaurant visits during inclement weather. Virtual waitlists, voice-assisted ordering, mobile payments, and controlling the pace of the meal are all reasons to use technology while dining in and delivery. Operators say these fingertip and touchless solutions are crucial to remain relevant in a digital-driven society.”

- The NPD Group, market research firm

- ▶ “Known as a technology pioneer leading the industry in the creation of the digital guest experience, Chili's was among the first casual-dining brands to adopt tabletop tablets. We currently use virtual waitlists, have rebuilt our online ordering platform and offer a quality loyalty program to say ‘thank you’ to our guests.”

- Steve Provost, Brinker International, Inc. Chief Marketing and Innovation Officer

- ▶ Chili's has more than 45,000 ordering tablets systemwide, where guests can order and pay for their meals from a tabletop device. Chili's has partnered with Ziosk, the restaurant-targeted tablet-maker, who estimates mechanized menus not only enhance the overall dining experience, but also boost impulse orders of appetizers and desserts with programmed images in a rotating display during meal time, increase table turnover during peak hours and automatically suggest a tip of 20 percent to the total bill. Ziosk also offers games for kids and news articles for reading enjoyment. In 2017, Ziosk tablets were used to generate $8.9 billion in restaurant transactions, up from $5.64 billion in 2015.
- ▶ Wyman Roberts, Brinker's CEO and President, said the company has seen a growing adoption of its smartphone app, which has made "the Chili's takeout experience about as seamless and convenient as it can be."
- ▶ "We are going to be leaning more aggressively into delivery as we move throughout the fiscal year," said Joseph Taylor, Brinker International, Inc. Chief Financial Officer.

- ▶ The reality is a loyalty program is a way of saying 'thank you' to our guests for being one of their top dining options, and we weren't doing a good job of that until now," said Steve Provost, Chief Marketing and Innovation Officer. Now, anytime a guest visits Chili's, they have choice of FREE chips and salsa or a non-alcoholic beverage. Every visit. Every time.
- ▶ Virtual waitlists, voice-assisted ordering technology, mobile wallet programs such as Android Pay, better food imagery, graphics and streamlined delivery service options are all digital platforms to boost brand recognition, off-premise sales and foot traffic among a growing generation of diners who prefer touch screens. Luckily Chili's is at the forefront of digitization and is applying all of these features to their business model. Mobile transactions yield between 11.5 and 12% of total sales.

CHILI'S SEES 'BEST TRAFFIC GROWTH IN 10 YEARS'⁽²⁾

By Rebekah Schouten | 01.31.2019

DALLAS — Improved operational execution, a 3 for $10 value platform and increased takeout orders led to "the best traffic growth we've seen in 10 years at Chili's," said Wyman T. Roberts, president and chief executive officer of parent company Brinker International, Inc., during a Jan. 29 earnings call.

Chili's traffic jumped 2.9% from the previous year's second quarter, which saw a 4.1% decrease from the year before that. Maggiano's Little Italy restaurants brought in 1.3% more traffic from the same period a year ago.

Brinker International, Inc. in the second quarter of fiscal 2019 ended Dec. 26, 2018, had net income of $32 million, equal to 83c per share on the common stock, which was up 26% from $25.3 million, or 54c per share, in the previous year's second quarter. Total revenues in the second quarter of fiscal 2019 increased 3.2% to $790.7 million from $766.4 million.

"Brinker delivered our fifth consecutive quarter of sequential sales improvement, posting positive sales and industry leading traffic," Mr. Roberts said. "Our sustained momentum is being driven by several key factors including operational execution, takeout and value."

Efficiency in operations has been key to Chili's recent resurgence, Mr. Roberts said. In late 2017, Brinker whittled down the Chili's menu by 40% and invested in improving the quality and value of its core menu items, which include burgers, ribs and fajitas. The efforts have streamlined operations and allowed the restaurant chain to deliver faster, hotter foods.

"Our operational momentum is bringing guests back into our restaurants," he said. "Our guests are telling us our execution and quality are significantly better even with the higher volumes. Today, we're seeing some of the best guest metrics we've ever seen. We believe our ongoing commitment to keeping operations simple and getting it right for every guest will have long-term impact on bringing guests back."

The company's focus on operations led to Chili's 3 for $10 value platform, which is simple for operators to execute consistently, Mr. Roberts said. The platform — which allows customers to choose a non-alcoholic beverage, an appetizer and an entree for $10 — has contributed significantly to Chili's success.

"3 for $10 is a relevant and compelling offer that's sustainable into the foreseeable future," Mr. Roberts said. "The platform is highly motivating from a consumer's perspective. It's at the right level of preference, and it's driving traffic because it meets the needs of our lunch, our dinner as well as our takeout guests. The offerings are full portion and high-quality products, and the platform is flexible enough to keep it fresh, so guest satisfaction and intent to return are very strong."

Another sales and traffic driver for Chili's during the quarter was its takeout business. To-go sales surged 20% in the second quarter, Mr. Roberts said, reflecting a rise in e-commerce, packaging improvements and better takeout experience execution.

"Consumers love the variety in our menu — couple that with the seamless experience we give them from order to checkout to pay to takeout, and you can't get takeout any easier or more affordable than with Chili's Curbside," Mr. Roberts said, "We're meeting our guests' needs, and we're delivering a great guest experience. So at 12% of our business today, we believe takeout still has plenty of upside, and we plan to leverage that."

Additionally, Brinker has grown its My Chili's Rewards loyalty members database to more than 6 million members, and Mr. Roberts said the company sees "significant opportunity" to leverage those connections in the future.

Brinker's foremost future focus is continuing the upward trajectory of its traffic.

"This has been the best traffic growth that we've seen in the brand in quite some time," Mr. Roberts said. "The potential for us to continue it, we're optimistic about. We want to continue to move traffic forward. When we think about what the drivers are to future growth, it's not just the viability of the value platform. It's that, coupled with, where does your takeout strategy go from here, how does your operational momentum build to the future with regard to consistency and winning guests back from that perspective. So there's multiple elements to the Chili's growth story that we're counting on, and we're confident it will allow us to continue to grow the business."
