Offering Memorandum: Dollar General #14480 – 1326 San Christopher Blvd, Dunedin, FL 34698Dollar General History

Dollar General (DG) has grown from a single store to the country's largest small-box retailer. A passionate commitment to serving its customers, employees, and communities is the foundation of Dollar General's growth.

James Luther (J.L.) Turner's father died in an accident in 1902 when J.L. was only 11. J.L. quit school so he could work on the family farm and help provide for his mother and siblings and never completed his education. J.L. knew his limited education demanded that he become a quick study of the world around him. After two unsuccessful attempts at retailing, J.L. became a travelling dry goods salesperson for a Nashville wholesale grocer. J.L. left the sales job after 10 years and settled his family in Scottsdale, KY. During the Depression he began buying and liquidating bankrupt general stores. J.L.'s only child, Carl Turner Sr., accompanied his father to these closeouts at a young age, gaining valuable business knowledge and skills. In October 1939 J.L. and Carl opened J.L. Turner and Son Wholesale with an initial investment of $5,000 each. Wholesaling quickly gave way to retailing- J.L.'s third and final attempt at retailing. The switch to retailing resulted in annual sales above $2 million by the early 1950s, and the rest is history.

The first DG store opened in Springfield, KY on June 1st, 1955, and the concept was simple – no item in the store would cost more than one dollar. The idea became a huge success and other stores owned by J.L. Turner and his son Carl Turner Sr. were quickly converted. By 1957, annual sales of DG's 29 stores were $5 million. J.L. passed away in 1964. Four years later the company he co-founded went public as Dollar General Corporation, posting annual sales of more than $40 million and net income in excess of $1.5 billion. In 1977, Carl Turner Jr., who joined the company in 1965 as the third generation Turner, succeeded his father as president of DG. Carl Turner Jr. led the company until his retirement in 2002. Under his leadership, the company grew to more than 6,000 stores and $6 billion in sales.

Today, the company is a leading discount retailer with over 15,300 stores in 44 states. The yellow DG sign is a popular symbol of value. Convenient everyday low prices model has survived and thrived through the decades. The company remains true to the humble ethic of hard work and friendly customer service, embodied by the founding family. About a quarter of DG's merchandise still sells for a dollar or less. The simplicity that defined DG's past is the engine that drives its success today.
