Beaches

Hotels, condos and resorts create a mini-skyline along downtown, the oldest part of Myrtle Beach, where the sandy beaches are long and deep and the crowds are family-oriented. The Myrtle Beach State Park provides more than 300 acres of piney woods and access to a sandy beach; cast your line into the ocean water from a fishing pier.

Shopping

Specialty shops line the pathways of the shopping centers at Barefoot Landing and Broadway at the Beach, and fireworks in the summer lend a festive air. Bargain hunt for brands such as Reebok and Polo Ralph Lauren at Tanger Outlets. Urban critics applaud the work-play-live development at The Market Commons, which offers restaurants, a movie theater, and residential homes atop upscale storefronts such as Pottery Barn and Inlet Square Mall.

Eating and Drinking

Virtually every major chain and sports-celebrity restaurant is found here, whether it's the NASCAR Sports Grill, House of Blues, or Greg Norman's Australian Grill. Away from the chains, look for waterside spots serving fresh local seafood in unvarnished Low Country preparations. Or give decorum a rest and head to, Calvin Gilmore's Carolina Opry which packs in crowds nightly.

Attractions

Renowned for its thrilling entertainment venues and exciting attractions, Myrtle Beach is one of the nation's most sought after tourist destinations. Meet locals on the golf course -- there are more than 100 to choose from. Myrtle Beach Board Walk named the nation's #3 boardwalk by National Geographic, Myrtle Waves, one of the largest water parks on the east coast. Family Kingdom Amusement Park, a classic seaside amusement park. Named #5 best amusement park in the country. Broadway at the Beach, a large entertainment festival complex including the Pavilion Nostalgia Park, Ripley's Aquarium, Magiquest, Hard Rock Cafe, and Jimmy Buffett's Margaritaville. The Carolina Opry, a show that blends two hours of music, comedy and dance -- from Broadway to country, from classic pop to rock'n roll, and gospel to bluegrass. Legends In Concert, featuring live concerts paying tribute to musical icons of today and yesterday. Barefoot Landing, a large shopping
