PEARLAND

Pearland is one of the fastest growing cities in Texas, positioned on a growth curve that extends well into the 21st century. However, Pearland's history goes beyond the initial founding date. Native Indian inhabitants hosted their first European visitors in 1528 including such famous names as Cabeza de Vaca, La Salle, and Stephen F. Austin leap out from this tumultuous chapter in Texas' colorful history that traces the area's development to present-day Pearland. The tenacity of these early settlers formed the backbone of a thriving community that continues to grow, increasing from approximately 19,000 to more than 100,000 residents in the last 2 decades.

As the fastest growing city in the Houston region, Pearland has everything your company needs to be successful. Affordable housing, outstanding schools, safe neighborhoods and superb quality of life has led to tremendous growth in Pearland. With millions of square feet of retail, office and residential construction completed in the past 10 years, Pearland is on its way to becoming the next major employment center in the Houston region. Their close proximity to Houston, just a short 20 minute drive to downtown, allows you to experience all the city has to offer including professional sports, world-class cultural amenities and recreation.

HOUSTON, TX

The city of Houston, Texas is located in the southeastern part of the state near the Gulf of Mexico. Over the last two decades, there has been a remarkable transformation in Houston. Today, the nation's fourth-largest city has become a diverse, vibrant metro filled with talented people who have an undeniable spirit. The economy is strong, cultures are many, and quality of life is second to none. Houston has one of the youngest, fastest-growing, and most diverse populations anywhere in the world.

Known as the Bayou City for its waterway system, Houston thrives because it is a great place to work and a great place to live. Alive with energy and rich in diversity, Houston is a dynamic mix of imagination, talent, and first-class attractions that makes it a world-class city. It exudes a cosmopolitan and down-home vibe while being nicknamed the "Space City."

The Houston region has more than 40 two-year community colleges and fouryear universities, including three Tier 1 universities: Rice University, University of Houston, and the nearby Texas A&M University in College Station. Houston-area colleges and universities educate nearly 430,000 students and graduate more than 100,000 students annually. The region also has 50 trade, vocational, and business schools specializing in law, healthcare, welding, process technology, and various other disciplines that enroll an additional 20,000 students, according to the National Center for Education Statistics.

HOUSTON AS A GLOBAL CITY

Houston maintains a global position as an international trade leader with economic and cultural ties reaching across the globe. As one of only five cities in the world connecting to all six inhabited continents, Houston is a global manufacturing and logistics hub and an international finance center. From the Port of Houston to the Houston Airport System, the city has an impressive array of logistical and distribution channels capable of meeting the demands of today's fast-paced market. Added to the region's central geographic location, Houston has easy access to the global marketplace, making it an ideal place for businesses looking to engage in international business.

- » More than 3,440 area firms, foreign government offices, and nonprofit organizations are involved in international business.
- » Approximately 1,700 Houston firms report foreign ownership and more than 150 Houston-based companies operate subsidiary locations around the world. These firms account for over 3,000 offices in more than 110 countries.
- » International trade directly or indirectly supports more than one-third of all jobs in the Houston metropolitan area.
- » Fifteen foreign governments maintain trade and commercial offices here, and the city has 35 active foreign chambers of commerce and trade associations.
- » Bush Intercontinental Airport offers non-stop service to more than 70 international destinations.
- » Hobby Airport completed construction on an International Terminal in 2015 and began service to Mexico and Latin America through Southwest Airlines. It now serves more than 55 destinations.
- » The Texas Medical Center sees an annual average of 16,000 International patient visits.

HOUSTON ARTS & CULTURE

Resident companies in drama, ballet, opera, and orchestra perform year-round in Houston. More than 500 institutions are devoted to the performing and visual arts, science, and history in the Houston area. Houston's nonprofit arts and culture industry generated over $1.1 billion in total economic activity.

Houston's Theater District, located in downtown Houston, spans 17 blocks, and its four flagship theaters house 13,000 seats. The Alley Theatre, Hobby Center for the Performing Arts, Jones Hall, and Wortham Theater Center host seven renowned performing arts organizations as well as many smaller programs.

The Houston Museum District is one of the country's most visited and diverse cultural centers with 19 museums. These museums provide rich experiences in art, history, culture, nature, and science. The district is divided into four walkable zones, each of which includes a group of museums. The Museum of Fine Arts located within the Houston Museum District is one of the largest museums in the United States. The permanent collection of the museum spans more than 6,000 years of history with approximately 70,000 works from six continents. Each year, 1.25 million people benefit from the museum's programs, workshops, and resource centers.

Houston is indeed a shopping mecca. From lavish malls like The Galleria and Memorial City to "storefront neighborhoods" like Post Oak, Highland Village, Uptown Park, River Oaks District, and Rice Village. As the largest mall in Texas and the ninth-largest in the country, the Galleria is an upscale mixed-use urban development centrally located in the Uptown District of Houston. With 35 million annual visitors, The Galleria has been named the most visited attraction in Houston. On top of an ice-skating rink, the mall holds over 400 stores and is currently anchored by Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom, Saks Fifth Avenue, and Macy's.

HOUSTON SPORTS

Houston is a major-league sports town where fans can cheer for a variety of professional, semi-pro, and collegiate teams year-round. Get into the action with the 2017 World Series Champion Houston Astros at Minute Maid Park or score a touchdown with the Texans at NRG Stadium, the world's first retractable-roof NFL stadium. Grab courtside seats to see the two-time world-champion Houston Rockets at Toyota Center. BBVA Stadium, home of the Dynamo and the Dash, hosts numerous soccer matches throughout the year. Other annual professional sporting events include the Houston Open and the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo-the world's largest.

HOUSTON ASTROS (Major League Baseball)

HOUSTON DINING

Countless cutting-edge chefs have made a home in Houston, where diners eat out more than residents of any other city. There are more than 10,000 restaurants in the Houston area with culinary choices that represent more than 70 countries and American regions. Numerous dining options, and the increasing number of food halls in the Houston area, earned the city a spot on "The 20 Best Places to Travel in 2020," compiled by Harper's Bazaar. Since Houston's first food hall opened in '16, four more have launched in the city, with an additional six in the works.

HOUSTON ROCKETS (National Basketball Association)

HOUSTON TEXANS (National Football League)

HOUSTON DYNAMO (Major League Soccer)

TEXAS MEDICAL CENTER

Houston is home to the largest medical center in the world–Texas Medical Center (TMC). Home to the brightest minds in medicine, TMC nurtures cross-institutional collaboration, creativity, and innovation through its 61 member institutions. From some of the world's leading hospitals to the top research facilities, Houston institutions are making an impact worldwide. In April '18, TMC announced the creation of TMC3, a multi-institutional 30-acre research campus that brings together the best institutions in clinical care, research, and industry. The campus is projected to be complete in '22, create nearly 30,000 jobs, and bring $5.2 billion to Houston's economy.

BUSINESS CLIMATE

Houston is a city of endless possibilities: Its history has been marked with achievements from the first word heard from the moon to the first artificial heart transplant. A distinctly favorable business climate promotes trade, commerce, industry, and economic growth in the Houston region. Many businesses recognize the allure of all Houston has to offer. Once dominated by oil-related jobs, Houston's economy has diversified as new, core industries join energy in the regional employment mix. As the 7th largest economy in the U.S. and with the nation's youngest and most diverse talent pool, Houston truly is the top headquarters city of the Americas.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and 0
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to 0 disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
