AREA OVERVIEW

SIERRA VISTA, AZ

Situated in the southeast of Arizona, Sierra Vista presents distinct and charming surroundings wrapped in the area's natural beauty. Sierra Vista is renowned for its breathtaking scenery, abundance of outdoor activities, and a blend of contemporary conveniences and vintage charm.

Sierra Vista's proximity to the Huachuca Mountains, offers a picturesque backdrop and a variety of outdoor activities like hiking, bird watching, and nature exploration, is one of its most notable features. Historic buildings and new construction mix in downtown Sierra Vista to creatingan inviting environment. The neighborhood serves as a gathering place for locals and tourists alike thanks to its abundance of stores, eateries, and cultural attractions. The city also holds festivals and events all year long, which adds to the lively and involved community.

Due to Sierra Vista's advantageous location near the border between Mexico and Arizona, a diverse range of cultural influences and customs coexist, resulting in a wealth of experiences and traditions. Sierra Vista's identity is further enhanced by the region's history, which includes its connections to Native American communities and military presence.

FORT HUACHUCA

Fort Huachuca, located in Sierra Vista, Arizona, is a significant joint services installation that has been in operation since 1877. This military installation plays a crucial role in training over 9,000 students annually. At any given time, Fort Huachuca is home to a diverse community, with over 5,600 military personnel, 8,000 civilians, and more than 11,000 family members. The base's history, spanning over a century, reflects its enduring commitment to military education and service. As an integral part of Sierra Vista, Fort Huachuca contributes to the vibrancy and diversity of the local community.

NEW DEVELOPMENT

Sierra Vista, Arizona, has seen ongoing developments and growth in recent years. Castle & Cooke, the largest private landowner in Cochise County, has initiated the planning phase for the Tribute neighborhood development, spanning nearly 2,000 acres. The project includes approximately 6,900 units, featuring 376 homes, 114 acres for commercial use, and 106 acres designated as "mixed-use" for a blend of residential and commercial purposes. Additionally, the development allocates 218 acres for open space and includes around 3.5 acres for a neighborhood park.

In early 2024, Sierra Vista City Council granted approval for the final plat of the Buffalo Soldier Ranch Subdivision. Situated to the east of the Holiday Subdivision, the development will be positioned at the south end of the city, adjacent to State Route 92. The finalized plat plan, presented by Canyon Vista Land, LLC, outlines the utilization of the nearly 111-acre space for the construction of approximately 350 homes.

Sierra Vista's community, Island Amenity Village, broke ground on its unique project, featuring a 709-foot heated lazy river alongside a white sand beach. Expected to open by the end of 2024, the village, located along the Highway 288 corridor, will offer residents an extended recreational experience, including a pavilion, splash pad, clubhouse, and various sports courts.

This Offering Memorandum contains select information pertaining to the business and affairs of the property owner and its tenant for real property located at 562 S. HWY-92, Sierra Vista, AZ 85635 (“Property”). The Offering Memorandum may not be all-inclusive or contain all of the information a prospective purchaser may desire. The information contained in this Offering Memorandum is confidential and furnished solely for the purpose of a review by a prospective purchaser of the Property. It is not to be used for any other purpose or made available to any other person without the written consent of Seller or Matthews Real Estate Investment Services. The material and information in the Offering Memorandum is unverified. Matthews Real Estate Investment Services has not made any investigation, and makes no warranty or representation, with respect to square footage, income and expenses, the future financial performance of the property, future rent, and real estate value market conditions, the condition or financial prospects of any tenant, or the tenants’ plans or intentions to continue to occupy space at the property. All prospective purchasers should conduct their own thorough due diligence investigation of each of these areas with the assistance of their accounting, construction, and legal professionals, and seek expert opinions regarding volatile market conditions given the unpredictable changes resulting from the continuing COVID-19 pandemic. The information is based in part upon information supplied by the Owner and in part upon financial information obtained from sources the Owner deems reliable. Neither owner, nor their officers, employees, or real estate agents make any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of this Offering Memorandum, or any of its content, and no legal liability is assumed or shall be implied with respect thereto. Prospective purchasers should make their own projections and form their own conclusions without reliance upon the material contained herein.

By acknowledging your receipt of this Offering Memorandum for the Property, you agree:

1. The Offering Memorandum and its contents are confidential;
2. You will hold it and treat it in the strictest of confidence; and
3. You will not, directly or indirectly, disclose or permit anyone else to disclose this Offering Memorandum or its contents in any fashion or manner.

Matthews Real Estate Investment Services is not affiliated with, sponsored by, or endorsed by any commercial tenant or lessee in the Offering Memorandum. The presence of any entity’s name or logo, including any commercial tenant’s name or logo, is informational only and does not indicate or suggest any affiliation and/or endorsement of Matthews Real Estate Investment Services, the property, or the seller by such entity.

Owner and Matthews Real Estate Investment Services expressly reserve the right, at their sole discretion, to reject any and all expressions of interest or offers to purchase the Property and to terminate discussions with any person or entity reviewing this Offering Memorandum or making an offer to purchase the Property unless and until a written agreement for the purchase and sale of the Property has been fully executed and delivered.

If you wish not to pursue negotiations leading to the acquisition of the Property or in the future you discontinue such negotiations, then you agree to purge all materials relating to this Property including this Offering Memorandum.

A prospective purchaser’s sole and exclusive rights with respect to this prospective transaction, the Property, or information provided herein or in connection with the sale of the Property shall be limited to those expressly provided in an executed Purchase Agreement and shall be subject to the terms thereof. In no event shall a prospective purchaser have any other claims against Owner or Matthews Real Estate Investment Services or any of their affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, owners, employees, or agents for any damages, liability, or causes of action relating to this solicitation process or the marketing or sale of the Property.

This Offering Memorandum shall not be deemed to represent the state of affairs of the Property or constitute an indication that there has been no change in the state of affairs of the Property since the date of this Offering Memorandum.

Net Lease Disclaimer: There are many different types of leases, including gross, net, single net (“N”), double net (“NN”), and triple net (“NNN”) leases. The distinctions between different types of leases or within the same type of leases, such as “Bondable NNN,” “Absolute NNN,” “True NNN,” or other NNN leases, are not always clear. Labels given to different leases may mean different things to different people and are not defined legal terms. Buyers cannot rely on the labels or marketing descriptions given to any lease when making their purchasing decisions. Buyers must closely review all lease terms and are advised to seek legal counsel to determine the landlord and tenant’s respective rights and duties under the lease to ensure the lease, regardless of how labeled or described, meets the buyers’ particular needs.
